YMCA To Kick Off Campaign With Banquet On Feb. 12th

The Torrance YMCA's current support campaign for 1959 will be launched at a kick-off banquet Thursday, Feb. 12, at 7 p.m. in the YWCA.

All citizens who are concerned with providing wholesome, healthy, meaningful leisure activities for Torrance youngsters and teenagers are urged to attend.

Albert Isen, campaign chairman for the YMCA, stated that $30,000 will be required to "keep the YMCA alive . . . and growing with our community's need."

THE KICKOFF banquet will signal the beginning of an intense effort to properly support local YMCA clubs, camps, teen programs, athletic leagues, and counseling services.

Clerk's Safe Beats Yeggs

Safecrackers who attempted to crack the safe at the Retail Clerks' Union Hall in Harbor City over the week-end had to settle for whatever wasn't in the safe, according to Harbor Division police.

Investigators said a rear door to the hall had been pried open and that an attempt to peel open the safe with a crowbar failed.

The burglars left with a television set, two cameras and two brief cases in addition to money that was in a vault in which the safe was located. They managed to work their way into the vault, police said.

'Don Juan' Held Over At Playhouse

Hermosa Beach Playhouse is again in the enviable position of using the magic words "held over" as "Don Juan in Hell" has proven to be a huge success with the South Bay Theater audience. Producer Patricia Gray announced an additional weekend to accommodate theater devotees who were unable to obtain reservations for this unusual production.

Thomas McBride, Dick Pinner, Charles Gray, and Melora Conway prove to be an unbeatable combination as they have received plaudits from the critics for their exciting interpretation of George Bernard Shaw's play, depicting three people and their arrival in hell. The dialogue ensuing proves to be most entertaining as they converse with the devil.
